Wrestling Journal seats

Revision 2026-10-10

What it means when an athlete's Wrestling Journal invite says No WJ license.

Athletes need a Wrestling Journal seat on your team to join Team Journals through a roster invite.

Check an athlete's invite

1. Open My Team, then Roster.

Look at the WJ invite column:

- Invite sent: the athlete got an invite.
- No WJ license: your team has no Wrestling Journal seat for them, so no invite went out.
- Invite failed: try again later.

The team's subscription includes Wrestling Journal access for their team (60 licenses) on Silver and Gold program licenses. Wrestling Journal seats are added to your team by the YourTeamManager team, not on a settings page. Ask them if athletes show No WJ license.

Wrestling Timer seats are separate (included with Silver and Gold). See Manage Wrestling Timer licenses.
